1. In order to humanly live as God intended for us, our best example is Adam (before sin).
2. It would be unbiblical to say that humanity is the most precious part of creation to God because His Son is most important to Him.
3. Pick A or B:

A. Before the creation of the world, God's ultimate desire was that He would have people to love. So He created them and sent His only Son, Jesus Christ, to die for them after they fell into sin so that now those who believe in Jesus can live with God forever and rule over His creation for all eternity.

B. Before the creation of the world, God's ultimate desire was to glorify His Son, Jesus Christ. Therefore, He created humanity so that Jesus could ultimately be their Savior and King Who would rule over all creation for all eternity.
